dedication to dr. benjamin lotz

After orientation was over and adjustment to SU began, the class of 1965 learned to expect a cheery "Howare ya?" or "Wie geht's?" from an old man in a dark coat, with briefcase, almost anywhere on campus. Surprising students into attending lectures, cajoling them to concerts, everyone benefited to their own amazement. Prodding, questioning: "How do you define a chair, Mr. Jones?", and making us think for ourselves, he could be found in chapel, in the classroom, and the snackbar; in short, where the students were.

On shorts: "Deine Hose sind abgeschnitten!" A "Benny-Test" became the byword for another battle of wits. He has seemingly tirelessly given most of his time to teaching, attending lectures, concerts, and organizing chapel services. To "Benny," Dr. Benjamin Lotz, we dedicate the 1965 LANTHORN.

ANN POTTEIGER

Intensely engrossed in her dearest passion, art, Ann Potteiger instilled a strong feeling for art into her students. A sense of interest and excitement surrounded her, since she had a vast wealth of knowledge to share with others. Through her benevolent and understanding attitude was won a deep student respect. She believed in the encouragement of each student in America to develop his talents to the fullest to make this a culturally blossoming land.

JOHN SLATER

Before the spirit of a man who dared to live so fully and courageously, the meaningless void of Death was swept away. "That to which we are truly committed is what we truly love," he said. His zest for life brought the meaning of such love into the life of each person who knew him. That which will remain forever is the faith in a vision of Truth which he gave us. Let us hope that we have become enkindled in mind and spirit from the spark of his genius.

from door to door, on many paths we seek to find meaning, searching boldly not for a truth, but the truth to live by.

and finding one does not stop us from looking the more, for life is lived in single bits, which make the aweful whole which overwhelms while showing meaning.

these bits aren't given — we must find them —
'be wary where others failed'; but we've not lost them, they have found us, what do we do with them now?

death and smoke were with us here, showing us what must come,
and we accept, and question not;
we only wait, then pass.

have we not learned in little bits which parts show us the whole?
we make our way and go not yet;
have we not much to do?
but we must learn, for otherwise were smoke – and death – in vain.

HIGHLIGHTS
WEEK

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF 1965:

The four years you have spent at Susquehanna University should have helped you mold a life whose hopes for all humanity are high, whose courage and desires to be effective in action are great, and whose ability to live with reality without forgetting the ideal is ever present. Should this have happened you will have learned to dream great dreams for yourself and your fellow-men. Such a person, made so by his formative college years at a Liberal Arts institution, will continue ever to learn and to grow.

When Ulysses returned home after the Trojan War and his long odyssey, he sought for peace, but soon learned he could find it only in restlessness, in divine discontent. He came to realize, as you will also in time, that peace and contentment of life come not from rest, but from strife, not from inactivity, but from action. Here are the words Tennyson has him speak:

"How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnished, not to shine in use!
As though to breathe were life! Life on Life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains; but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things; and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself,
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought."

The last two lines are heroic in their inspiration. May they abide with you as the most precious memory of your years here and that you may "Follow knowledge like a sinking star, Beyond the utmost bound of human thought."

artist series

Pierre Fournier

Benjamin Fine

Through the programs in the Artist Series, Susquehanna students are given an opportunity to explore the past, present, and future. Pierre Fournier's cello recital, Hermann Prey's rendition of German "lieder," and the early music done by the New York Pro Musica provided an excursion into the great musical past. Margaret Webster's readings from Shakespeare's sonnets and plays presented the literary past. The lectures by Dr. Benjamin Fine, Arthur Schlesinger, and Louis Untermeyer offered interpretations of the present with respect to the past and predictions for the future in the fields of education, history, and literature.

As the official governing body of the Student Government Association of Susquehanna University, the Student Council acts to promote cooperation and communications between administration, faculty, and students on campus. Operating under a new constitution, this year's council has been particularly effective in such areas as coordination of campus organizations, judiciary system improvement, expansion of social programs, and continued expression of student sentiment. Always looking toword the future, this dedicated group actively devotes itself to the betterment of student life at Susquehanna.

joint judiciary board

The Men's Judiciary Board, presided over by the Men's Vice President of Student Council, is concerned with cases involving infractions of regulations of men students.

The Women's Judiciary Board, headed by the Women's Vice President of Student Council, consists of ten members representing each class and each women's living center. The board deals with cases pertaining to violations of women's rules, reviews and revises women's rules, and this year instituted dormitory libraries in women's residences and designed a handbook for women students.

The Joint Judiciary Board, advised by Dean Steltz and Dean Polson, consists of the Men's and Women's Vice Presidents of the Student Council, representatives from Men's and Women's Judiciary Boards, and two representatives from the student body at large. A chairman, this year Paul Hartman, presides.

Functioning as a higher board of appeals to the Men's and Women's Boards, Joint Judiciary handles cases involving violations of university regulations, not involving housing, but cases concerning both men and women students, and investigates infractions of academic regulations.

Alpha Phi Omega, the National Service Fraternity, is dedicated to serve the nation, the community, the campus, and the members of the fraternity.

The chapter began its services this year by welcoming the freshmen to college with A Phi O's booth in the Activities Fair, an exciting test of skill and water sport.

Continuing their service to the school and community, the brothers sided the weekly and special Bay Scout meetings, sold tickets and ushered at the football games, provided tours of the campus, sponsored a straw vote for the national presidential election, heightened school spirit with a Homecoming car wreck, constructed highway safety signs for the holidays, and directed the semester book exchange.

During the second term the brothers ushered at concerts and plays, helped with the annual tent musical, and ran the traditional "Ugly Man" contest for charity.

Socially, our hayride and dance and campus "Ugly Man" dance were the crowning functions for the first and second semesters, respectively.

Adviser	DR. THOMAS McGRATH

The purpose of the Chemistry Club is to inform its members about the chemistry profession. This year's activities included hearing speakers in the various fields of chemistry at the monthly meetings and a field trip to a chemical company to observe industrial processes. Projects included selling coffee and soda in the chem room, selling chemistry and physics handbooks, and cooperating with the Photography Club and the Biemic Society for the Birthday Celebration for the new science building.

debating club

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Schanke, the Deboting Club entered its second year of octivity. The first event of the season was the "Novice Clinament" at Lehigh. For intercollegiate debates, the team traveled to such universities as Temple, and Yeshiva, and Morgan State College, on all-Negro school in downtown Baltimore. On February 20 Susquehanna hosted the Dutchmen's Forensic Classic Tournament which was attended by teams from over 15 schools.

Stimulating general participation and interest in women's recreational and athletic activities is one of the primary objectives of the WAA. Membership in this association is determined by the earning of points for either interscholastic or intramural participation. In addition to taking charge of Homecoming elections and festivities, the association sponsored several "play" days with other schools and sold refreshments at football games.

Membership in Tau Kappa, the national women's athletic honorary fraternity, is restricted to those women who have actively attained a specified number of points through outstanding participation in varsity and intramural sports. Stimulating and maintaining an interest in athletic events, upholding good sportsmanship, and continuing the high standards of physical efficiency are the goals of the organization. Susquehanna's Beta Chapter, founded in 1948, regularly sponsors its famous sandwich selling drives, annually contributes a basket of food and clothes to a needy family in the area at Christmas, and sponsors play days with other schools.

Under the guidance of Mr. Ronald Berkheimer, the staff of The Crusader strives to uphold its motto "To speak and write the truth" in its coverage of all S. U. events from Freshman Orientation to Commencement.

This year The Crusader enlarged its scope in order to appeal to a greater percentage of the student body. New feature columns such as "Folk Forum" and "Musical Notes" have been added. Poetry on current topics by S. U. students and well known poems by such poets as Robert Frost have enriched the aesthetic content of the paper. S. U.'s "Suggestion Box" and the "Letters to the Editor" invited student comment. Polls on the opinion of the professors on the candidates in the national election combined with articles on the platforms to aid students to vote intelligently. Reflections on President Kennedy's assassination a year ago and T. S. Eliot's death in January shared the thoughts of S. U. writers with the whole student body. Cartoons and quotations contribute to the lighter side of the paper.

The student chapter of the MENC is part of a national organization composed of students in the music curriculum. The purpose of an MENC Chapter is to provide an opportunity for professional development and contact with professional musicians and teachers for college students in music education through participation in campus, state, division, and national meetings of the organization. The meetings, held at least once a month, feature special programs which are important for the future music teachers, and include material not covered in the music curriculum. In December the MENC chapter attended the Pennsylvania Music Educator's Association Convention at Harrisburg, Penna.

MENC projects this year included preparing an ensemble workshop and donating funds for purchasing recent books in the field of music recommended by faculty and student committees.

The campus was live with music from the time that the SAI's returned to campus this fall. Their participation in the Activities Fair helped to add to the atmosphere as visitors to the fair heard lilting strains of Gay Nineties tunes as they entered the gate.

At the Roaring Twenties Party in October, the sisters entertained the freshmen and transfer music students. In November, these girls again joined with SAI for a formal tea and musicals.

The Incorporation Day Tea and a Christmas Concert presented for the enjoyment of the campus were the activities for December. The girls performed several other concerts for the Women's Auxiliary and the State School at Christmas time.

In March a tea to which the public was invited was presented by the sisters. The annual Spring Concert featuring Contemporary American Music and the Charter Day Tea were also Spring Events.

The Inter-fraternity-sorority Sing was again sponsored by SAI to the appreciation of music on the campus.

the singing crusaders

Director*—BRENTWOOD HENZEL

The Singing Crusaders, under the direction of senior Brent Henzel, is a group of Susquehanna men organized for fun and fellowship while entertaining others with their singing. The Crusaders are a student-run and student-sponsored organization and have carried on a tradition that dates back to its founding in the winter of 1959. Unlike other musical organizations, auditions are not necessary and the only requirements are enjoyment of singing and attendance at rehearsals. The music used is mostly of the secular variety, although a well rounded balance is not neglected. The music has been proven to be enjoyed by men's choruses throughout the nation. This year the group's activities included singing at the Homecoming Coronation, participating in the Civil War Centennial and in Chapel services, and also serenades of the girls' dormitories.

susquehanna university singers

The University Singers is a student organized and directed group composed of 10 members from both the music and liberal arts curricula.

The singers have performed at various churches and schools in the area, as part of the Collegium Musicum, as one half of a formal recital and in their own "pop" concert in May. A two-day concert tour of the Philadelphia area in February was a highlight of the year.

The repertoire included pop, folk and art songs, contemporary works, madrigals, and church music.

The fall always seems the busiest time of the year and it certainly was for Alpha Delta Pi as we started the year off with a fall serenade. The football games, pep rallies, the crowning of ADPi's Carol Ocker as Homecoming Queen, Homecoming floats and Parent's Day provided an exciting atmosphere to start off another year.

A new fall pledge class that was inducted into Alpha Delta Pi was kept busy with projects that included a shoe shine and helping the sisters sell "Affy Tapples."

The cold winter crept in but it was filled with activities such as the joint Christmas serenade with Kappa Delta, a Christmas lounge dance, and volley ball. A Christmas party was held with Lambda Chi Alpha for underprivileged children in the area where all the sisters worked hard knitting mittens and collecting and wrapping toys for the children.

As the Spring months rolled around, ADPi and their new pledges chased after the Easter Bunny as the party with Phi Mu Delta started for the underprivileged children once again. Spring also found the sisters busy with their coed party, the Greek Ball, shoe shine, Greek Sing and a picnic at Halfway Dam.

The annual senior-pledge banquet on Founder's Day, May 15, culminated another school year as Alpha Delta Pi bade farewell to their seniors who continued on their road of life. Everyone agreed—it was a wonderful year with wonderful memories.

The "Fuzzies" of S. U. returned to campus this year eager to begin their many activities. The first big job was working together on their Homecoming float. Next was the Parents Day tea held after the football game. At the annual fall serenade the sisters officially introduced their mascot "Al Fuzzie" to the new members of the campus. Then came the annual lounge dance.

Once again the sisters entered enthusiastically into their philanthropic work at the Selinsgrove State School where they acted as volunteer hostesses the first two Sundays of each month. During the school's Open House held in the spring, the girls acted as guides.

Even though the sisters were kept busy with their many activities, they managed somehow to do some studying and in doing so Alpha Xi Delta captured the Sorority Scholarship Cup for the fifth consecutive year.

During the spring the sisters were kept hopping preparing for the annual Easter Egg hunt for the faculty children. The spring coed party provided a time for dancing and relaxing for the AXiD's and their dates. The senior banquet brought to a close a year filled with many happy memories for all the sisters.

Fall ushered in another exciting and eventful year for the sisters of Kappa Delta, beginning with enthusiastic work on "Willie" for KD's entry of "Jonah and the Whale" in the Homecoming float contest. Parents' Day, with the traditional ceremony for the parents and a delicious banquet at "The Antlers," was another highlight of the season.

Cider, doughnuts, and a band were exactly the right ingredients for the Hallowe'en lounge dance sponsored by the sisters, while the crisp winter air, warm candle lights and flaming KD made a perfect setting for the two annual serenades.

With the coming of spring, the sisters prepared for the Spring Fashion Show, the coed party, and the picnic at Halfway Dam. With buckets and sponges in hand, the KD's busily washed cars for their annual project, the proceeds of which go to the national philanthropy, the Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond, Virginia. The sisters also began a new philanthropy project this year supporting a school in Concepcion, Chile. The money for this project was earned by waitressing for the four fraternities on campus.

As another year drew to a close, the sisters of Kappa Delta bade farewell to the seniors at the Senior Banquet and fondly recalled many happy memories, agreeing that the year was indeed a successful one.

The exciting first full year of Susquehanna's newest sorority got off to a successful start when their Homecoming float, "Three Blind Mice," won the competition among the sororities.

Next on the calendar was a tea and open house for parents on Parents Day. Then came the fall sing along serenade on November 5.

The sisters began to work in the Doctors' Geriatric Center in Selinsgrove as their local philanthropic project. Sigma Kappa supplied hostesses, entertainment, and seasonal decorations for the home.

Christmas brought the sisters together for a party and gift exchange before going their separate ways for vacation.

In the spring, sisters and pledges worked hard to make their second annual chicken barbeque with Phi Mu Delta a success. Epsilon Delta chapter's first full year of activities concluded with a farewell to the graduating class.

lambda chi alpha

The brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha returned to campus in the fall for another successful year.

As Homecoming drew near, the brotherhood diligently worked on "Captain Hook," their float. The highlight of the social season was the coronation of Joan Hoffman as Crescent Queen for 1965 by Sue Campbell, the retiring Queen. At Christmas time the brotherhood worked with the sisters of Alpha Delta Pi to give a party for the underprivileged children of the community.

Spring semester brought in the "Animalia" to aid the local Community Chest Drive. The Bunders enjoyed the annual Hobo Party with its unusual costumes. They treated the campus with their delicious spaghetti dinner. Hard practice preceded the Greek olympics which were held in April.

The Spring Formal concluded the social season.

phi mu delta

The brothers of Phi Mu Delta began their activities this year with a Homecoming luncheon and an alumni banquet at the Hotel Edison. They all worked hard on the float, "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." The brothers entertained their parents at a luncheon on Parents' Day. The spring semester social season began with the "Jailbread Party," a smashing success and concluded with the annual Spring Weekend which culminated in the Spring Formal.

Improvements and repairs begun on the alcove and main stairway last spring were completed this year. During the spring semester the brothers and pledges kept busy making further repairs.

Phi Mu's local philanthropic project was helping the borough of Selinsgrove create a park on the Isle of Que.

The Tekes returned to S. U. this fall to a newly-refurnished and redecorated house and plunged into a whirl of activities. There were Parents Day with the tea for the Order of Diana and Homecoming weekend with TKE's prize-winning float, "Alice in Wonderland." Still in tune from their win in last year's "Sing," the fraters took to the campus in numerous serenades.

Socially there were "Rathskeller Ruckus," open house "Jammies" and informal gatherings at the house on Saturday nights. This socializing plus a well-organized rush program netted 40% of the Fall Rushees.

Christmas was a time of giving and enjoyment. Working with AXiD, the Tekes entertained children from Selinsgrove State School and produced Santa Claus in a most jovial mood. After having given in the true spirit of Christmas, everyone spent an enjoyable "Winter Weekend," which was highlighted by the crowning of TKE's Sweetheart, Sue McAuliffe.

During the spring months Iota-Beta hosted the Province Leadership School, which was attended by members of other TKE chapters in Pennsylvania, as well as some of TKE's national officers. Later the fraters joined with the other Greeks on campus to celebrate Greek Week.

After having initiated the largest pledge class in the chapter's history, S. U.'s Tekes closed out a truly great year with their annual Spring Formal.

With the start of football season Theta Chi again stepped in with its loudest roar, only to be heard at the women's dorms Friday nights with a cloud of smoke, the cannon's boom and a hearty "charge!" Theta Potato was on the loose. The same rusty old cannon could be heard again the next day as it thundered out the heavy toll we accumulated against our opponents.

First place victory was not ours in Intramural football; however, we did play with good sportsmanship and great excitement. We are now looking forward to a good season next semester.

The brothers of Theta Chi had another successful party season starting off with our fall Rush Party, and a jam session made up of cider, dancing, and fun. Due to circumstances beyond our control (under the control of the fire company) we had to exclude our Thanksgiving party. Our Christmas banquet was full of Dr. Weber's wit and the charming company of the new Chaplain, Mr. Flotten, and his family. Hal Herman's orchestra provided the smooth music after the untimely visit of Santa. Soon after Janet Clark was chosen Dream Girl of Theta Chi.

After capturing the scholarship trophy and gayly serenading the women of S. U., Theta Chi can once again look back on a worthwhile year of fun, work, and brotherhood.

Coach Garrett and his ever-present walkie-talkie.

Seven points! All that stood between the Crusaders and another undefeated season. However, this point spread was accumulated in two games, and for the first time in the five year reign of Jim Garrett, the Crusaders lost more than one game in a single season. Nevertheless, the Crusaders rolled to a fine 7-2 record and piled up 232 points, almost three times that of the opposition. Displaying their usual rugged ground attack and, on occasion, a brilliant passing game, the Crusaders racked up seven impressive victories.

The first of the seven came at the expense of Randolph-Macon in the annual Sunbury Kiwanis Charity game, 42-0. Lead by fullback Bill Galbraith, who scored three touchdowns on runs of three, seven and one yards, the Crusaders ran unmercifully over the visitors from Ashland, Va., as they piled up 344 yards rushing while holding Randolph-Macon to a –3 yards on the ground. The Crusaders took the opening kickoff 73 yards to score with Galbraith going over from the three. They came right back again on a 70 yard scoring pass from Sam Metzger to Garcia Reed. Sophomore Tom Rutishauser took a lateral from Metzger and went 23 yards for another score early in the second quarter and Galbraith added a fourth touchdown on a seven yard run. After being held scoreless in the third period, Galbraith and quarterback Charlie Greenhagen iced the game in the fourth quarter with runs of 1 yard and 43 yards respectively. Bill Galbraith was named the outstanding offensive player of the game while Randolph-Macon tackle Bill Baumeister was the top defensive player.

The team next traveled to Marietta, Ohio, to meet the Marietta Pioneers who provided some tough opposition with a great passing game. The Crusaders drew first blood early as Barry Plitt recovered a stray football on the Pioneer 42 yard line. With Galbraith and Larry Erdman lugging the pigskin, the Crusaders moved to the 10 where Sam Metzger circled end for the touchdown. Erdman added the two point conversion and S. U. led 8-0. The Pioneers came right back to score after recovering an Erdman fumble on a 10 yard pass to halfback Len Randlof. Bob Wolfarth kicked the point and the score was 8-7. Following the kickoff the Crusaders marched down the field to score on a 1 yard run by Erdman. Marietta fought back to score with 6 seconds left in the first half on a five yard pass play. The kick was blocked and S. U. led at halftime 16-13. Opening the second half, the Crusaders put together a 75 yard scoring march which ended when Bill Galbraith blasted over from the five. The big play in the drive was a 21 yard pass from Metzger to Reed. Dennis Johnson returned the kickoff to the 50 and from there the Pioneers moved to the 1, where Johnson went over for the score. Galbraith put the game away for S. U. when he scored from the six. Galbraith added another TD late in the game scoring from the one. Final score: 36-19.

Co-captains Erdman and Caruso.

Galbraith wins the "Most-valuable Offensive Player" trophy.

The Kiwanis "Old Hat" trophy, won by S. U. for the fifth-straight year.

Returning home the following week to meet the inspired Larries of St. Lawrence, the Crusaders left the field at halftime trailing 7-6. The only S. U. score coming on a 3 yard jaunt by Galbraith. However, the Crusaders fought back with two touchdowns in the final quarter to gain a 22-7 victory. Galbraith scored his second TD of the game early in the fourth quarter plunging over from the one, capping a 53 yard drive and later Larry Erdman dashed 52 yards into the end zone following a fumble recovery. In this game Bill Galbraith boosted his national small college scoring leadership up to 48 points.

Juniata provided the opposition for the Homecoming Day game with the traditional Goalpost Trophy up for grabs. The Crusaders provided the large crowd with a stirring second half rally which brought home a 36-17 victory. After trailing 14-8 at halftime the Crusaders launched a blistering ground attack which subdued the fired up Indians. With Erdman, Vignone and Galbraith leading the way, each with over 100 yards rushing for the game, the Crusaders hung up 4 TD's in the second half, while holding Juniata to a FG. Erdman scored twice in the second half on runs of 62 and 8 yards, Galbraith once on an 18 yard run and John Vignone added an 8 yard run to complete the scoring. Bill Galbraith scored the only touchdown in the first half on a 1 yard plunge.

The next stop for the unbeaten Crusaders was Lexington, Va., where they stopped the Generals of Washington and Lee on their home field for the first time in six years, 28-0. The Crusaders piled up 22 points against the outmanned Generals in the first half and went on to add six more in the second half. Four men did the S. U. scoring in this game as Larry Erdman, Sam Metzger, Richie Hirsch and John Vignone each scored on 6 yard runs. Richie Hirsch played an outstanding game both offensively and defensively by blocking a punt, which led to the first TD, by scoring a TD of his own in the second quarter and by picking up 42 yards rushing.

After five straight victories, the Crusaders now faced the team which has beaten them twice in the last three years, and the Upsala Vikings almost did it again. After intercepting a Metzger pass at the Crusader 38, quarterback Joe Valenzano moved his team in for a score on a pass to end Len Pierson. Later, after an interception on the 10 yard line by John Vignone, the Crusaders drove 90 yards to score, with 40 seconds left in the half. Sam Metzger scored on a 5 yard run to cap the drive. Galbraith put S. U.

in the lead to stay when he scored from the two in the third quarter. However, Upsala provided the Crusaders with quite a scare when with 3:50 left in the game Sam Metzger fumbled deep in his own territory and Upsala recovered. Rich Hirsch saved the day when he pounced on a loose ball at the Susquehanna 3 yard line to end the game.

Then disaster hit. The eighth ranked team in the country before the game, the Crusaders just couldn't get going against a good Alfred team. With sophomore halfback Tom Quinn leading the way with two touchdowns, Alfred squeaked by S. U., 18-16, to end a 14 game winning streak for the Crusaders. The only bright spot in the game was an 85 yard kickoff return by John Vignone in the fourth quarter. Larry Erdman had the other S. U. score when he scampered 9 yards into the end zone in the first quarter.

Following the disastrous defeat the previous week to Alfred, the Crusaders came back to romp over a hapless Geneva College, 26-0. The Crusaders capitalized on three pass interceptions and a fumble to gain the victory. Larry Erdman gained 145 yards in rushing to highlight the victory.

Just as Geneva had handed the game to S. U. the week before, so too the Crusaders fumbled away the game at Youngstown. Youngstown scored early on a recovered fumble in the end zone. Midway through the third quarter, Youngstown struck again, this time on a 70 yard TD scamper by halfback Joe Ceremuga. Finally the Crusaders came to life in the final period but it was too late. Larry Erdman capped a 63 yard drive early in the fourth quarter with a 1 yard run. The attempted conversion failed. Then Bill Leshnock booted a 32 yard FG to give the Penguins a 17-6 lead. After Vignone had returned the kickoff to his own 34, Larry Erdman broke off tackle for 52 yards to the Youngstown 12. Three plays later he scored from the two. The Crusaders were given a final chance to win when Bill Gagne recovered a fumble. The Crusaders drove to the six yard line where they also fumbled to end the drive and the game. Larry Erdman broke the alltime Susquehanna rushing record in this game with 2,156 yards for 4 years topping Larry Kerstetter's total of 2,101 yards set last year.

All in all the season was very successful, with the new rushing record and the gaining of national ranking for the first time. Coach Garrett now faced the task of replacing the 15 graduating seniors for next season.

"Ground sticks, ground sticks, ground sticks, crash!" Miss Beverly Reed's bright-eyed hockey girls spring into action and the game starts. Led by captains Louise Spitzner and Priscilla Limbert the team had a successful season of three wins and three losses.

This impressive season was due to the quality, spirit, and extra effort of the team. Outstanding in their performance were Joan Duke and Kathy Breffit on the forward line, Louise Spitzner on full-back, and Arlene Davis as goalie.

Win or lose, Susquehanna is proud of the good sportsmanship, skill, and enthusiasm displayed by the girls.

The exciting atmosphere of pep rallies and bon fires started the season for the 1964-65 cheerleading squad. With nine regulars and three alternates, the squad sparked school spirit by leading the cheering at football and soccer games. This year they were also able to attend two of the away football games.

With the coming of basketball season, our squad, full of pep and enthusiasm, was found on the basketball court cheering our team on to victory.

Kneeling—B. Evans, G. Wolcott, D. Saylor. Standing—P. Jorjisian, P. Radke, J. Howk, N. Elston, K. Livingston, I. McHenry.

intramurals

Aikens North, a well balanced dormitory team, displayed a fine showing of team work and defeated Lambda Chi, a more experienced and larger fraternity team, in the championship playoff game, 19-9. The game was not decided until the closing minutes of the fourth quarter when Aikens North pulled ahead in the remaining time. This is the first time that a dorm team was able to claim the championship usually won by a fraternity team.

This year's intramural league was marked by a strong competitive spirit and a lot of good solid team work. The regular season standings for the year are as follows.

	W	L	T

editor's note:

At the end of any job which must ultimately be judged by the individuals who comprise the fickle "public," the people who work on that job can only wait for the praise or blame of these outsiders who have every right to compare the product to all others they have seen, and to commercial products with which they are familiar. This yearbook represents many things to many people: an indexed, visual student directory—a good or bad work of graphic art—an annual picture book—a book which will remind them of college life in years to come. However a person views it, that's how he will judge it.

After looking through hundreds of yearbooks, I thought everything had already been done. But every individual is different from every other, and every class has its own distinction. The class of 1965 is no exception, and in the sense that all yearbooks are dedicated to the seniors, this one is also, with the hope that it truly will serve to remind them of all the things, tangible and spiritual, that made their college career at SU. From the gopher holes to GA burning to new buildings—we leave, the college goes on—but we will remember our four years here.

As a group we staffers owe many thanks to many people; at times it seemed the whole campus would have to help to make the book go on. But it did . . . It was Mr. Tamke who helped us to visualize the finished product and prodded us when the going was rough. At times we seemed like the spokes of a wheel, going in all directions, or like Euclidean parallel lines which never meet. But eventually all our efforts focused and the LANTHORN took shape.

Thank-yous seem inadequate, but to the layout, typing, photo and copy groups, congratulations on a job well done.

The Vannucci, Shindler and Vantine studios learned to expect the zaniest picture suggestions from us, but patiently snapped and developed pictures that amazed everyone—including us. For the seeming millions of candids go plaudits to Bob and Jim for their efforts.

These results were due to the guidance of a dedicated group of juniors, who wish the seniors luck and best wishes, and offer them this book. Carol spent hours with photos, Sue ran many a successful errand and gave much valuable aid and suggestions. Patty patiently channelled my wild layout schemes into practical lines, and Brenda, Linda, and Carol have read thousands of words of copy, which Sue and the AZs typed. Larry and Pete got sports results, and the Grit offered excellent suggestions. To all the unnamed others, thank you. Also, much appreciation to Nancy for patiently listening, insisting, and suggesting. With all this, I hope the reader enjoys the LANTHORN.

The Susquehanna University archery club was chartered by the Student Council on May 10, 1965. Activities of the club have included writing a constitution, compiling a file on all phases of archery, and teaching its members basic forms and techniques, which each archer then incorporates into his own style. Future plans of the club include teaching the members how to make their own arrows, joining the National Archery Association and the Pennsylvania State Archery Association. The team plans to compete in the National Archery Association Mail Tournament and also to compete against teams from other colleges such as Franklin and Marshall and Penn State.

Tryouts were held in February for the first Susquehanna University College Bowl Team. The team was selected on the basis of such things as number of correct answers and speed of answers in practice sessions. Senior Ronald Bacon was chosen as captain; Doranne Polcrack, Marian Shatto, and Janie McCormick were the other members; Mandy Moritz was the alternate.

After weeks of preparation under the guidance of Mr. Schlecht, Dr. Wiley, Mr. Bradford, and Mr. English, the team scored a decisive victory over a team of faculty members and then, on March 26, headed for New York. Friday night they saw an off-Broadway production of Euripides' The Trojan Women; Saturday they saw the Broadway show, Tiny Alice.

Sunday the team attended church and then went to the studio. After several practice rounds, the Susquehanna team faced the team from the University of Wisconsin on a live television broadcast and was defeated.
